

GET THE CHEESE, AVOID THE TRAPS: An Interactive Guide to Government Contracting

Chapter XIII Bonus: State and Other Entities

Think about your business and answer each question before moving on. Record your results.

Do you remember what MBE and WBE Programs are? Who offers them?

Here you will find the Port of Virginia's Contracting Opportunities. Now take a look at their e-Procurement page. If you look closely you will see several similarities from the previous Chapters and systems. Can you remember and name a few of the other systems that were previously mentioned?

Also, it is the tool to use for bidding on a project. Which system does this sound like?

What agency uses eBuy?

DGS also offers a financial tracking system. Can you tell me which of the federal systems offered financial tracking as well?
